

Reflecting on the Learning Pathway: How to Study a Place

Place/Region: _____ _____	Book Title: _____ _____
The land can be very different in different places. It might be flat or hilly, wet or dry. What is the land like in this place?
Different animals are suited to different places in the world. What kinds of animals live in this place? How is each animal suited to this place?
Different plants are suited to different places in the world. What kinds of plants live in this place? How is each plant suited to this place?
The weather is different in different places—hot or cold, wet or dry. What is the weather like in this place?
People who live in different places do different kinds of work. What kinds of work do people do in this place?
There are good things and bad things about different places in the world. What seems good and bad about living in this place?
Compare this place to another place in the world. What is the same? What is different?
Would you want to live in this place? Why or why not?	