

Concept Development

A character is a person, animal, or thing in a story.

- A character talks or does something in a story.

← Definitions

The Gingerbread Man

1. One day, Grandma was baking sweets. 2. She put the pan in the oven. 3. The gingerbread man jumped out. 4. He yelled, "You'll never catch me!" 5. Then, he ran out the door. 6. The cat chased him down the road.

37 words

Grandma 	Gingerbread Man 	Cat
--	--	--

Not an example of a character:

oven

door

← Non-examples

↑ Examples

CFU questions

CFU

Why is the door not a character?

The door is not a character because _____

Which picture below shows a character? "Number ____ shows a character because _____."

1.

2.

