

ELLA: [LAUGHS]

SPEAKER 2: [LAUGHS] What's that?

ELLA: A brown bear.

SPEAKER 2: Mm-hm. What's that?

ELLA: A clock. Clock. [LAUGHS] A ball.

SPEAKER 2: What's this one?

ELLA: A ball.

SPEAKER 2: And?

ELLA: A butterfly, a toy, a kite, a fish, a fish, a horse.

SPEAKER 2: Uh-huh. And what's this one?

ELLA: [LAUGHS] An apple.

SPEAKER 2: What's that? What's this one? Let's finish naming them. What's this one? Is that a car over here?

ELLA: Mm-hm.

SPEAKER 2: What is it?

ELLA: It's a house.

SPEAKER 2: What about this guy?

ELLA: A sun.

SPEAKER 2: Right. And what's that?

ELLA: A kite.

SPEAKER 2: And-- nope. That's--

ELLA: [LAUGHS] A butterfly.

SPEAKER 2: What's that?

ELLA: [LAUGHS] A butterfly.

SPEAKER 2: Is it a turtle?

ELLA: (LAUGHING) No.

SPEAKER 2: What do you ride on?

ELLA: A bike.

SPEAKER 2: Right. What's that?

ELLA: A train.

SPEAKER 2: And this one?

ELLA: A crayon.

SPEAKER 2: This one?

ELLA: Clown.

SPEAKER 2: He's called a jack in the box. You know when you wind it up-- ding-di-di-di-- boo!

ELLA: [LAUGHS]

SPEAKER 2: [LAUGHS] That's what he goes-- ding-di-di-di-diddidy-- poo!

ELLA: [LAUGHING]

SPEAKER 3: Tell me why you like puzzles.

ABIGAIL: Because sometimes, I always wanted to play with my mom like my classmates. So I asked some of my classmates-- that's like one like Ellie. So I chase her by running.

SPEAKER 3: You do?

ABIGAIL: Yeah.

SPEAKER 3: And when you catch her, do you do puzzles?

ABIGAIL: Not really. Because they really don't have puzzles. Because they only have Play-Doh like here.

SPEAKER 3: Oh, like we do-- Play-Doh like we do.

ABIGAIL: Yeah.

SPEAKER 3: Well, I'm glad we have a puzzle here. So do you see any pieces that fit in that puzzle?

ABIGAIL: Mm, this.

SPEAKER 3: What is that?

ABIGAIL: That's a bear.

SPEAKER 3: A bear. Where would you put him?

ABIGAIL: Here.

SPEAKER 3: Oh, OK. Does he fit?

ABIGAIL: Yeah.

SPEAKER 3: Good. What do you have now?

ABIGAIL: I have a kite.

SPEAKER 3: A kite. Can you find a place for the kite?

ABIGAIL: Right here.

SPEAKER 3: Nicely done. Oh-- snap.

ABIGAIL: [LAUGHS]

SPEAKER 3: [SMALL LAUGH] It went in, and it jumped out. Nice job.

ABIGAIL: Sometimes I just like candies, too.

SPEAKER 3: Oh, you do? Because they're sweet, aren't they?

ABIGAIL: Yeah. But sometimes they're zombies.

SPEAKER 3: Oh really?

ABIGAIL: Yeah.

SPEAKER 3: [LAUGHS]

ABIGAIL: Sometimes, there's a zombie who will get out in my mouth.

SPEAKER 3: Uh-huh.

ABIGAIL: I mean get inside.

SPEAKER 3: Oh my! Then what do you do?

ABIGAIL: But I just brush them.

SPEAKER 3: Oh.

ABIGAIL: They might say, no!

SPEAKER 3: [LAUGHS] But you can brush them.

ABIGAIL: Yeah. Sometimes I always know to do the front.

SPEAKER 3: Oh. Well, you've got to do the front--

ABIGAIL: Yeah.

SPEAKER 3: --and the back, and the inside.

ABIGAIL: Yeah.

SPEAKER 3: Yeah. [LAUGHS] All those things.
