

■ FIGURE 14.11 BPD and Feelings of Inclusion

Being included in social situations elicits different feelings for those with BPD and those without. Note the anger and sadness before and after the inclusion condition for those with borderline personality disorder and controls (C).

Source: Renneberg et al. (2012).

