

Public arrest is a formal sanction due to the embarrassment and trauma of going through the booking process, even if charges are later dismissed. Arrest is a form of both specific deterrence and general deterrence.