

WEBSITES TO EXPLORE

www.cia.gov/library/publications/the-world-factbook/index.html. The World Factbook, the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) profile of countries around the world, contains a wealth of historical, political, and geographic information.

www.foundingfathers.info/federalistpapers. This site offers the complete collection of The Federalist Papers.

<http://lcweb2.loc.gov/frd/cs>. The Library of Congress's Country Studies site contains information about the social, economic, political, and national security systems of countries around the world.

http://news.bbc.co.uk/1/hi/country_profiles/default.stm. The BBC Country Profiles site contains historical, political, and economic information about countries around the world.

www.nytimes.com/pages/cartoons. The New York Times political cartoons section showcases a collection of current political cartoons by syndicated cartoonists.

www.parliament.uk/about/living-heritage. This site presents a good history of the British Parliament.