

BIOLOGICAL AND CHEMICAL WEAPONS CAPABILITIES

Country	Biological Weapons Capabilities		Chemical Weapons Capabilities
	State Declaration	Allegations	State Declaration	Allegations
Albania	None	None	Mustard gas and other chemical agents declared and destroyed in 2007 and 2012.	None
China	Denies having active biological weapons (BW) program	United States claims China has extensive BW program and multiple delivery systems	Denies having active chemical weapons (CW) program	United States has alleged that China maintains CW program; recent reports do not indicate sufficient evidence to support the allegation.
Cuba	Denies having active BW program	United States claims Cuba has had limited BW program but in 2010 said no activities were prohibited by the Biological Weapons Convention (BWC)	None	None
Egypt	Some reports in 1972 of BW program; currently claims to be opposed to production and stockpiling of BWs	Egypt may not have eliminated stockpiles; no current information to suggest that it is not in compliance with BWC	No significant declaration of CW	Used CW against Yemen previously; not a signatory to Chemical Weapons Convention (CWC)
India	Claims to be in compliance with BWC	No allegations. India has robust delivery systems capabilities.	Chemical agents declared and destroyed in 2009	No allegations. India retains capability to make chemicals that can be used in CW production.
Iran	Has denounced BWs	Intelligence sources claim Iran has capability to make limited quantities of BWs but does not have conclusive evidence	Has denounced CWs	Intelligence sources claim Iran has capability to make CWs.