

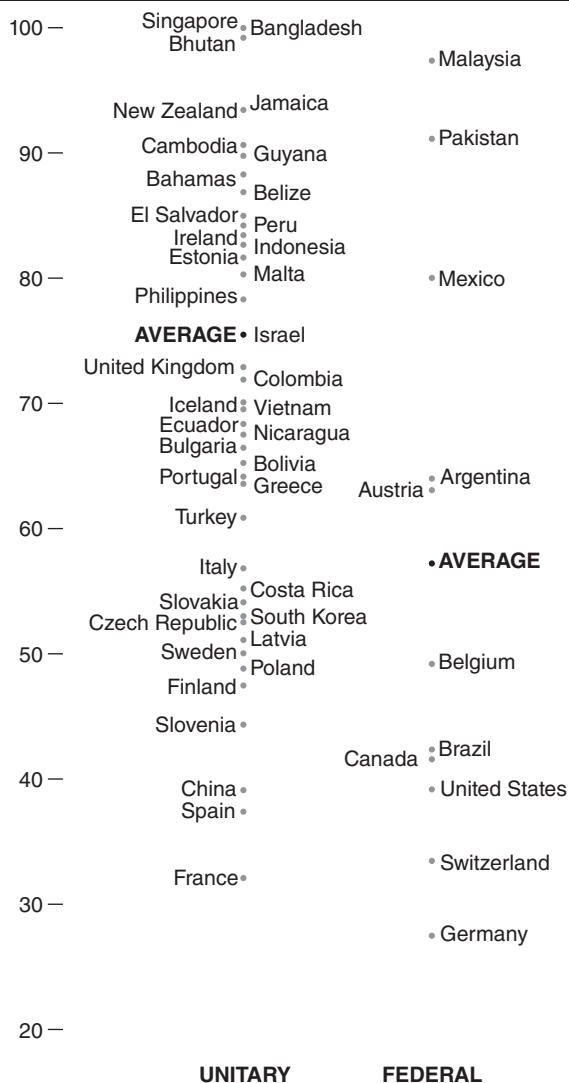

FIGURE 13.1 ■ Revenue Centralization: Central Government's Share of Tax Revenue

Note: Data are for seventy-three unitary countries and eleven federal countries (OECD Global Revenue Statistics Database at <https://stats.oecd.org/>). The central government's share of tax revenue is calculated as the tax revenue collected by the central government divided by the total tax revenue. The values and names of some unitary countries have been omitted for visual clarity.