Note: The figure is from the Our World in Data project (Roser et al. 2023), <https://OurWorldInData.org/economic-growth>. Data is from the Madison Project Database (Bolt and van Zanden 2020). GDP per capita is expressed in international dollars at 2011 prices and is adjusted for inflation and for differences in the cost of living between countries.
