

TABLE 3.1 ■ Exit, Voice, and Loyalty

Stimulus	Exit	Voice	Loyalty
The government increases taxes.	Reallocate your portfolio to avoid tax increase.	Organize a tax revolt.	Continue to pay taxes; keep your mouth shut.
There's a decline in the quality of peaches at the local fruit stand.	Buy mangoes, or buy peaches somewhere else.	Complain to the store owner.	Continue to eat peaches; keep your mouth shut;
The Supreme Court rules that prayer in public schools is unconstitutional.	Homeschool your children.	Lobby the government to change the Constitution.	Keep your children in the public school system; keep your mouth shut.
Your state outlaws handguns.	Move to a different state.	Join the NRA or a militia group to put pressure on the state to allow handguns.	Turn in your handguns; keep your mouth shut.